1. Page 3, Lines 76 through 88:

76       (7) [~~After all right to appeal has been exhausted, a judgment of conviction establishing~~

77   ~~criminal accountability for the felonious and intentional killing of the decedent conclusively~~

78   ~~establishes the convicted individual as the decedent's killer for purposes of this section. In the~~

79   ~~absence of a conviction, the]~~ The court, upon the petition of an interested person, shall

80   determine whether, under the preponderance of evidence standard, the individual [~~would be~~

81   ~~found criminally accountable for the felonious and intentional killing]~~ has committed a

82   disqualifying homicide of the decedent. If the court determines that, under that standard, the

83   individual [~~would be found criminally accountable for the felonious and intentional killing]~~ has

84   committed a disqualifying homicide of the decedent, the determination conclusively establishes

85   that individual as [~~the decedent's killer]~~ having committed a disqualifying homicide for

86   purposes of this section . unless the court finds that the act of disinheritance would create a manifest injustice . A judgment of criminal conviction for a disqualifying homicide of the

87   decedent, after all direct appeals have been exhausted, conclusively establishes that the 88 convicted individual has committed the disqualifying homicide for purposes of this section.
